SBA Disaster Assistance for Alamosa Salmonella Outbreak

The economic impact of the Alamosa Salmonella Outbreak has adversely affected many small businesses in Colorado.

SBA Economic Injury Disaster Loans (EIDL) can provide working capital of up to $1.5 million to help small businesses pay fixed debts, payroll, accounts payable and other bills that can't be paid because of the disaster's impact, until operations return to normal.

SBA Customer Service Representatives are available to meet with you to help you prepare your loan application and answer your specific questions.

Application Assistance Is Available to You at:

ALAMOSA

SBA Disaster Loan Outreach Center
San Luis Valley Development Resources Group
626 Fourth Street

Open through Thursday, April 24
Mondays through Fridays, 8 am to 5 pm

SBA Customer Service Representatives are at the Alamosa Disaster Loan Outreach Center to meet with you to:

- explain how SBA may help you recover from this disaster
- help you prepare your loan application
- answer your specific questions

We will meet with you face-to-face to help you get started. No appointment is necessary. You may visit SBA whenever it is convenient for you during our hours of operation. We encourage you to take a few minutes and bring your application in so we can give you one-on-one help. If you have not yet received an SBA application, you may pick one up at the outreach center.
